General Notes: In Nonconformist Register by Horsfall Turner, could be his extractions from the registers of Oliver Haywood, once Vicar of Coley Pr Ch , who it seems had nonconformist tendency's and was thrown out. About 10yrs later he got a licence to preach again. But he never stopped, it is thought he took the Coley reg's with him, when he had to leave. The owner of the big house at rear of Ch gave him shelter, and he lived at one time in a cottage up The Hough Northowram. He had a large pulpit still in Heywood Chapel Northowram. Descendants of John Bottomley

He was a Worsted Manufacturer On 1822 in Shelf (8) He resided 16 June 1827 in Shelf. 9. He built Victoria Mills at Shelf made him very wealthy in the Mid 19th C. According to the 1851 Census, he employes 1000 people (430 men, 565 women. 123 boys, 35 girls.)

He resided on 7th June 1841 in Wade House. 10. He was a Manufacturer and Spinner on the 1841 Census, He resided on 1851 Census at Wade House Shelf. 11. The source cited has literally " of Wade House Shelf. it is thus safe to assume that he had lived in Wade House for some time beforehand. Joseph Woodhead, the father of Moses's second wife, owned Wade House, and it seems likely that Moses moved there when he was given it! or inherited it through his wife. It extremely likly that Moses Bottomley was Joseph Woodhead's successor. By implcation (in Landed Genrty) he lived there for the rest of his life, never moving to Shelf Hall which his son Samuel Bottomley built in 1860. Samuel Bottomley also owned Shelf Old Hall. It follows that he did not live there when he married Sarah Shaw, so all thoses Children by his first wife would have been born elsewhere, and mat=ybe some or all of the children by his secon wife were also born elsewhere (despite whay has been stated.

Wade House no longer stands but the main road running through Shelf today is called Wade House Road.

He died on 12 Jun 1870 in Wade House, Shelf, Halifax parish, Yorkshire.12,13,14,15 He was buried on 18 Jun 1870 in St Michael & All Angels Shelf.16 We have tried to find his grave - it used to be surmounted by a large sandstone obelisk. Other Bottomley monuments are in the graveyard, but they are granite, so Moses' may have been taken inside the church itself - it surely can't have disappeared or been dismantled. [Note that both his wives were buried in Wade House Chapel.] He was a Weaver later Manufacturer. It has also been said that Moses was a shopkeeper before becoming a manufacturer of cloth. It is thought that his elder sister Sarah Bottomley and her husband Abraham Briggs, whose family owned Briggella Mill, may have pushed Moses into the textile industry. He was a Merchant.11 He was a Worsted Spinner and Manufacturer.17 He bore Arms: these are obviously an outward expression of his wealth, not an entitlement by ancestry - I have a copy of a painting of the arms and copies of some correspondence leading to the granting of the Arms in 1851. I don't know what happened to these arms when he died - perhaps they passed to his son Samuel upon Moses' death in 1870 - but what then happened I don't know. Samuel Bottomley had married Caroline Jane Holmes in 1853; she seems to have been an heiress of the Cautley family, who also bore arms. Their son (and hence Moses' grandson) Moses Nathaniel Bottomley certainly changed his name in 1885 to Nathaniel Cauthley and gained arms that combined those of the Bottomely and the Cautley families. It seems that (from the lack of the individual arms in the source 'The Landed Gentry'), this combined arms superseded both previous versions. I don't then know what happened to the combined arms thereafter: it appears that neither Nathaniel Cauthley nor Holmes Cautley had issue, so maybe the arms became defunct.

Wade House Chapel was built on land belonging to Moses Bottomley. The land was part of Wade House Farm.

In his Will, he states that his mills in Shelf should pass to his sons Moses and Samuel, his eldest sons by each of his two wives. Also that his two (surviving) daughters shall live in Wade House: he is particularly keen that the younger Mary Ann is well looked after - this may imply that she was unmarried and maybe needed such looking after. With his sons (and their respective families) and his two daughters well provided for, his other descendants seem to have been treated rather differently. The one Smith grandson got all of £10000, whereas the five Tetley grandchildren shared 'only' £8000. Although their mother 'got' a half-share in Wade House, the four Wyrill grandchildren got nothing until she died, when they shared £8000.

It is interesting to note that both Moses' wives predeceased him, and of his 12 children 8 also predeceased him at least two of them surviving only a few months.

He was married to Sarah Shaw g-5 on 24 Mar 1816 in Halifax.18 Sarah Shaw g-5 was born on 9 Oct 1799.11,19 She died on 16 Jun 1827 in Wade House Shelf?.20 Her daughter Mary Ann was born Halifax (parish?), so she probably died Halifax (parish?): this could conceivably be Wade

House, Shelf. She was buried on 19 Jun 1827 in Wade House Chapel Shelf.⁹ Her father is shown in The Landed Gentry as John Shaw; and in the Pedigree as John Shaw of Horton(?), a farmer.

The children are all said to have been born in Wade House, also his wife is said to have died there. My previous comments have indicated that Moses may not have moved into Wade House until after he married his second wife. She has her own Domestic Servant - Alice Hartley. She died in Dec 1910 in Wade House, Shelf.²⁴ She was buried in Dec 1910 in St Michael & All Angels Shelf.²⁵ She was a Manufacturer's daughter. She was unmarried.

He was married to Susannah Woodhead g-5 on 18 Dec 1827 in Halifax.²⁶ Susannah Woodhead g-5 was born on 5 Jul 1792 in Wade House, Shelf.²⁷ She resided on 7 Jun 1841 in Wade House, Shelf, with husband and family. She died on 9 Nov 1859 in probably Wade House, Shelf, Halifax parish, Yorkshire.²⁸ She was buried on 12 Nov 1859 in Wade House Chapel Shelf.²⁹ She was a daughter of Joseph Woodhouse [sic]. {This is bound to have meant Joseph Woodhead of Wade House - the Pedigree says that.} Her father was Joseph Woodhead of Wade House - sources: Pedigree and The Landed Gentry. [JO thinks he was born about 1772 in Wade House, Shelf.] Her mother was probably Naomi living with her and her husband in a separate dwelling at or within Wade House in 1841 age 70, of independent means (and hence the source of the forename Naomi?). Two grandchildren were with her, presumably thus nieces of Susannah Woodhead.

My previous comments have indicated that Moses may not have moved into Wade House until after he married his second wife. Since there is no proof that I am aware of either way, I have left the children's birth place as is, queried. Moses, Lucy and Naomi are definitely children of Moses and Susannah, and Edward almost certainly is. The other three are somewhat doubtful. Susey has the same birth date as Lucy and I think Susey / Lucy may be the same person. It looks as though details of Susey, Thomas and James may have come from the 1841 census, but as I don't know, I must query their very existence: they do not appear with their parents in 1841, so the best guess is they all had died before then.

Children of Moses Bottomley G-5 and Susannah Woodhead g-5 were:

- +6 i. Moses Bottomley G-4.
 - 7 ii. Edward Bottomley G-4 was born about Nov 1830 in Shelf.³⁰ He died on 21 Apr 1831 or 24 Apr 1831 in Shelf.^{31,32,33} "24 APR 1831 MTH" is on the stone at Wade House Chapel, Shelf. He was buried on 25 Apr 1831 in Wade House Chapel Shelf.⁹
 - +8 iii. Lucy Bottomley G-4.
 - 9 iv. Susey Bottomley?? G-4 was born on 11 Jul 1832 in Wade House Shelf?. I do not believe she is a daughter of Moses and Susannah, even if she existed. She could well be Lucy, by another name, or by simply misreading Lucy as Susey. She was baptised on 24 Oct 1832 in Bradford parish church?. She died before 1841.³⁴
 - 10 v. Thomas Bottomley? G-4 was born in 1834 in Wade House Shelf. The date looks as though it is based on an 1841 census entry. But his existence is otherwise unconfirmed, except for an entry in netGI film 6142835 which has him born "abt 1834 <Shelf>" to Moses Bottomley and Sarah Shaw. Sarah Shaw as mother is of course impossible, but the submitter has got the right father apparently. He died before 1841.³⁵
 - 11 vi. Naomi Bottomley G-4 was born on 29 Aug 1834 in Wade House Shelf.³⁶ She was baptised on 17 Oct 1834 in Bradford parish church. She died on 5 Feb 1835 in Wade House Shelf.³⁷ Died age 5 months, which tallies with dob. She was buried on 9 Feb 1835 in Wade House Chapel Shelf.³⁸
 - 12 vii. James Bottomley? G-4 was born in 1836 in Wade House Shelf. The date looks as though it is based on an 1841 census entry. But his existence is otherwise unconfirmed. He died before 1851.³⁹

Descendants of John Bottomley

1. Angela Taggart: ancestor of Ann Bottomley. Source for Moses Bottomley and his descendants: Angela Taggart and Janet Ogden, except where otherwise footnoted. Angela also provided a Tetley Family Tree, a Bottomley Family Tree via Yvonne Fearnley (both filed in the correspondence), and a copy of Moses Bottomley's Will (appended). The Will appears to list all surviving children and grandchildren, so that we can infer those individuals who did not survive. Moses appears to have Willed his assets to only blood-relatives, so that for example a son-in-law does not benefit. The Will is dated 23-10-1866 and proved 17-6-1871.
2. Janet Ogden. Source for Moses Bottomley and his descendants: Angela Taggart and Janet Ogden, except where otherwise footnoted.

4. 'JB-Summary'.
5. Place only: inference.
6. Pedigree of Bottomley of Shelf. I do not know whether the Pedigree of which I have a copy is that referred to in the letter. Pedigree of Bottomley of Shelf has 26-6-1796, but this cannot be right, being after his baptism! Janet has just 1796, but her source has a precise 6-6-1796. Angela has 1797: given the baptism date, this must be wrong. RHolroydTree has 1795.
7. IGI J107655. One source (JB-will) gives his baptism as 1795 - this is a little odd, for every other baptism therein is right. There is an outside chance that this 1795 Moses died in infancy, but then the absence in the will of the surviving Moses has to be explained.
8. "Illustrated History of Wibsey, Howhaven(?), Oakenshaw, Wike, Norward Green, Judy Brigg, Royds Hall and Shelf" - two page photocopy sent to Janet Ogden 3-1995.

18. 'Pedigree of Bottomley of Shelf' has 24-3-1815, but this is at odds with the wife's birth being stated as 9-10-1799. 'The Landed Gentry' has 1818.
19. Burial Register - Wade House Chapel. An extract of Bottomley entries, a copy of which given to me by Janet Ogden. Dates range 1827-1923. 54D82 2/8/3/D. Gives an age at death of 28, iso 27, which may cause us to doubt the stated dob.
20. Pedigree of Bottomley of Shelf. I do not know whether the Pedigree of which I have a copy is that referred to in the letter. Date only. [JO has 15-6-1827].

25. Ibid. The transcription actually is "?? 11 1911 86yrs". This is out of sequence. Assuming that it is this entry which is wrong, "?? 12 1910 86yrs" is almost the only sensible amendment, which nicely fits the original date given of Dec 1910 age 86. The name given is "Marianna", but it is clear we are referring to Mary Ann.
26. Pedigree of Bottomley of Shelf. I do not know whether the Pedigree of which I have a copy is that referred to in the letter. Note that IGI does not have record (is this true?).

33. 24-4-1831.

34. Pedigree of Bottomley of Shelf. I do not know whether the Pedigree of which I have a copy is that referred to in the letter. Early death based not only on her absence from the 1851 'Pedigree of Bottomley of Shelf' which was produced to gain Moses' Coat of Arms, but also on her absence from Moses Bottomley's 1870 Will, and her absence from the 1841 census.

35. Ibid. Early death based not only on his absence from the 1851 'Pedigree of Bottomley of Shelf' which was produced to gain Moses' Coat of Arms, but also on his absence from Moses Bottomley's 1870 Will, and his absence from the 1841 census.

36. netGI film 6142801. This source has "29-8-1832 Shelf" to Moses Bottomley and Sarah Shaw. The mother cannot be Sarah Shaw but could be Sussanah Woodhead. There is a two year discrepancy with the other known birth date - one or other is clearly a transcription mistake - I don't have two Naomis I am sure.

37. Burial Register - Wade House Chapel. An extract of Bottomley entries, a copy of which given to me by Janet Ogden. Dates range 1827-1923. 54D82 2/8/3/D. Date and age only, not place.

BOTTOMLEY, Charles S., Textile Manufacturer. The world of industry is built upon the needs of mankind. Each separate manufacturing establishment goes to make the foundations secure and enduring. And upon the integrity of some man or some group of men does the existence of each individual industry depend. In the busy little city of Rockville, Charles S. Bottomley holds an important position among the men who provide a means of livelihood for the constantly growing population of the city. The name Bottomley is one of those names derived from location; com-pounded of the words "bottom" and "lea" meaning literally, bottom, or lower meadow, thus designating definite location. For many generations the Bottomley family of Shelf, near Bradford, England, has been interested in the manufacture of textile goods. The father of the Rockville manufacturer, William Bottomley, was a manufacturer of woollen goods at Shelf, and later was connected with Briggs Priestly & Company, at Bradford, England. William and Elisabeth (Lister) Bottomley were the parents of six children. Both are now deceased. Herbert, the eldest son, came to America, and was for a time a member of the firm of A. Priestly & Company, at Camden, New Jersey. Another son, Frederick W. Bottomley, is in the manufacturing business in Bradford, England. Charles S. Bottomley was born at Shelf, July 16, 1866. After attending the schools near his home, he continued his education at Thorp-Arch Grange, a Cambridge preparatory school. He was then associated with his father in the firm of Briggs Priestly & Company, the worsted manufacturers of Bradford, England, noted the world over for the excellence of their goods, which are sought by discriminating consumers on account of their uniformity of weave and stability of dye. Mr. Bottomley, as a young man, went through all the departments of the factory and made himself thoroughly familiar with every practical detail of worsted manufacturing, including textile designing. In 1886 he came to America, and became associated with his brother in the firm of A. Priestly & Company, at Camden, New Jersey. He remained there until May, 1897, when he accepted the position of designer for the American Mills Company, of Rockville, Connecticut, where he remained until January, 1900, then , went to the Hockanum Mill of Rockville, in the same capacity. In August of that year he went to the New England Mills, giving his ability wider scope in the office of superintendent. From there, in 1907, he was transferred to the Hockanum Mill, as superintendent. When the Hockanum Mills Company was organized, he was appointed as the assistant general superintendent, also a director of that organization, both of which positions he now holds. In his public life Mr. Bottomley throws his influence into such activities as feel the need of business sagacity, since, while they benefit those with whom they deal, their very existence depends upon the confidence of their patrons. He is director of the Rockville Building and Loan Aqueduct Company and a comparator of the Savings Banks of Rockville Politically Mr Bottomley is a staunch Republican, although he rarely takes the foreground in political affairs. In social as well as in business life. he is one of the leading men of Rockville. He is a member Fayette Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons; .Adoniram Chapter, Royal and Select Masters. Mr. Bottomley married. January 20, 1897, Lucy Mary, daughter of Jonathan and Eliza M. (Thomas) Pickering, of Camden, New Jersey. Mrs. Bottomley was born in Manchester, England. There was one child of this marriage, Margaret. The family attend and aid in the support of the Union Congregational Church, of Rockville

THE Bradford Observer , Wednesday 6th June 1888.

Death Of Mr James Bottomley Of Buttershaw —;Many of our reader, and especially those, engaged in the worsted trade, will much regret to hear of the death of Mr James Bottomley, of Buttershaw Mills, which took place yesterday morning at Harrogate. The deased gentleman was one of the most familiar figures on the Bradford Exchange, and so recently as Thursday last week his cherry presence and plain, homely speech might have been heard where Bradford merchants most do congregate. At that time he appereared well and hearty, although he had been somewhat unwell previouslt, and for some weeks had been staying at Harrogate for treatment of the air and medical treatment. He returned to Harrogate Friday morning, and had a serrious relapse on Monday, but after giving hope of recovery during the day, succumbed about seven o'clock yesterday morning to effusion on the brian. Mr Bottomley was in the seventy-second year of his age. He was of very humble origin, on which topic it was his wont frequently to dilate. He was one of the three brothers, the others being named Thomas and Samuel who having learned the art of weaving at the old firm of Moses Bottomley, of Shelf, started businees together by employing a few handloom weaver in their nastive village. About forty five years ago however they move to Victoria Mills, Brighthouse, where they employed steam power in a small way of businees. After the lapes of three years, the brothers removed to Victoria Mills Low Moor, where they embraked upon a much larger undertaking as fancy manufacturers. This particular department of the Bradford trade was then in its heyday, and the firm of S. Bottomley and Bros. was very successful, inasmuch that in 1851 the firm purchased largely of the Beamont estate at Buttershaw, and in 1852 the first portion of Buttershaw Mills, Afterwards Mr James Bottomley erected Farfield House adjoining, which is situated in the extensive grounds. These works were afterwards largley add to, and have become very extensive manufacturing premises, while in regard to consiruction and mechanical appliances they have few equals. At Buttershaw Mills the businees of Messrs. S. Bottomley and Bros. was laergly extened by the firm taking up the mohair and alpaca branches of the trade, and in this line of business became famous both as spinners and manufacturers. As there was a great need of the addtion of employment in the neighbourhood other than that of afforded by the adjoining ironworks, Buttershaw Mills supplied the want, to the great benefit of the locality. In 1858 two of the brothers, Samuel and Thomas Bottomley, retired from active business, which devolved upon Mr James Bottomley, in conjunction with his sons, Thomas, Joseph and UJames junior, the old style of the Samuel Bottomley and Bros. being continued. During the entire esistance of the firm the energy and practical skill brought to bear by the deceased gentleman contributed much to its success. He had a keen eye to business, was acquainted with every detail of his own trade, and his endeavours of which no one was more worthy. Mr Bottomley not only did well himself, but one of his chief enjoyments was in seeing others prosper. I(n temperament he was one of the best hearted and most genial of mentthat the neighbourhood possessed. His merry laugh was infectious and his comical tales were irrisistible. He was indeed a fine specimen of a Yorkshire gentleman. and in many respects will be much missed in the neighbourhood where he was so well known and respected. Mr Bottomley took especial interest in local affairs of North Bierley, of which Buttershaw forms a part. He was for many years a member of the North Bierley Local Board, and for several years chairman of the Board. He also represented the interests of the waste land of Wibsey and Low Moor. In politics he was an ardent Liberal, and chairman of the Liberal Committee of his district. He gave largely towards building the Congregational Church and School at Buttershaw, and was a great supporter to last. Mr Bottomley was widower, his wife having died about three years ago. He left a family of three sons and three daughters, the former being engaged in their business at Buttershaw Mills.

General Notes:

FIRST GENERATION

1. Nancy/ Ann? Bottomley G-41,2 was born on 20 Jun 1816 in Wade House, Shelf?.3 She was baptised on 2 Oct 1816 in Bradford parish church.4 She died between 1 Jan 1866 and 23 Oct 1866 in Isle of Man. Her dates of death are based on (a) Angela Taggart states that she was alive when her son Robert was baptised in 1866, and (b) she was absent from her father's Will of 23-10-1866 (as well as her husband's Will of 6-1-1869). However, St Michael's Burial Register transcription has an Ann Tetley of Wade House Shelf buried "9-12-1864 -----?" (sic): although this contradicts point (a) above, it is a compelling record for Ann Bottomley's death in 1864 - however, I have not changed the details as stated. Details about Ann and her family are mostly from Angela Taggart (her place of birth and her baptism details are from Janet's tree - see following). Janet's tree does not have Ann Bottomley (who married Charles Tetley 24-11-1838 born 1811) but it does have a Nancy Bottomley (who married a Charles Petty 26-11-1838 born about 1816). It's a pound to a penny that this latter couple are in fact the same as the former couple, so I have merged Nancy's details into Ann's.

She was married to Charles Tetley g-4 on 24 Nov 1838 in Bradford parish church. Nancy was married 26-11-1838. I suppose both dates could be the reading of the Banns. Charles Tetley g-4 was born in 1811 in Cleckheaton.⁵ His parents are George Tetley and Grace Greenwood; his five siblings - all elder brothers - are also known: see Angela Taggart's Tetley Family Tree. He was baptised on 16 May 1811. He resided on 24 Nov 1838 in Westgate, Bradford. He resided in 1845 in Broomfield Terrace, Bradford. He resided between 1850 and 1852 in adjoining Cannon Mill, Great Horton Rd, Bradford. He was a Worsted spinner and manufacturer between 1850 and 1852. He died on 23 May 1871 or 23 May 1876 in Isle of Man.⁶ He was buried in Peel cemetery, Isle of Man.

After their marriage, Ann and Charles lived in Westgate, Bradford; in 1845 they were living in Broomfield Terrace, Bradford; in 1850-52, they were in a house adjoining Cannon Mill, Great Horton Rd, Bradford where Charles was shown as a worsted spinner and manufacturer. He patented three inventions, one a centrifugal pump. He saw a centrifugal pump at the 1851 Great Exhibition, and sued its manufacturer for patent infringement in the High Court in London, but lost because he hadn't worded his patent well enough. After the case, he and Ann and the three youngest children went to the Isle of Man. Angela doesn't know what took them there: however, one of the witnesses in the case worked for an engineering company in Liverpool which at that time was involved in the building of the Laxey Wheel at the Laxey Mine, IoM. In 'Rambles round Horton' William Cudworth says that Charles Tetley was manager of Laxey Mine for many years, but Angela has not found any confirmation of this on the IoM itself. He did, however, do a lot of prospecting on IoM, and did own the Kirk Michael Mining Co (lead and silver) with two others (partners?), as well as slate quarries. Charles Tetley is buried at Peel cemetery on IoM, but not with his wife. His wife Ann is thought to have died in 1866. Children of Ann Bottomley G-4 and Charles Tetley g-4 were:

- +2 i. Robert Bottomley Tetley G-3.
- 3 ii. Lucy Tetley G-3 was born in 1843 in Bradford.^{7,8} She died after 23 Oct 1866. This is based on her named presence in Moses Bottomley's will.

SECOND GENERATION

2. Robert Bottomley Tetley G-3 was born on 1 Oct 1839 in Bradford.¹³ He was baptised between 1 Jan 1866 and 23 Oct 1866 in Isle of Man. He resided about 1876 in Ilkley, Yorkshire.¹⁴ He resided about 1878 in New York, AME NW [sic].¹⁴ He resided on 4 Apr 1881 in High St, Great Dunmow, Essex.¹⁵ He was living here with a Housekeeper Harriet Cooper (a 56 year old widow - I wonder if she is the daughter-in-law of the Coopers of Millington House with whom other Tetleys were lodging at the same time). He is married but his wife is elsewhere. Could he travel the country with his steam ploughs, rather than remain based in one place? He was an Owner of Steam Ploughs on 4 Apr 1881.¹⁶ He died on 1 Nov 1929 in Redcroft, Branksome Park, Bournemouth.¹⁷

He was married to Mary Hill g-3 on 3 Apr 1867. Mary Hill g-3 died between 31 Jan 1868 and 10 Jan 1877. possibly by 1875? She was born u/k. Children of Robert Bottomley Tetley G-3 and Mary Hill g-3 were:

Descendants of John Bottomley

There is no doubt the wife of Robert Bottomley Tetley is identified: both her and her two children are with her, their names being sufficiently distinctive to ensure no doubt. Her mother was Mrs Jane Mitchell. She resided about 1876 in Ilkley, Yorkshire.¹⁴ She resided about 1878 in New York, AME NW [sic].¹⁴ She was an Annuitant on 4 Apr 1881.²¹ All the female members of the family are Annuitants: since her mother is widowed, this probably arises from her father's estate rather than her husband's efforts. She resided on 4 Apr 1881 in 2 Plevna St, Rothwell, Yorkshire, with mother.²¹ Her widowed mother Mrs Jane Mitchell is head of household, age 59, born Ossett. Anne 34, Lucy 32, Collin 21 all born Ossett; Adeliade 29 born Horbury, Yorkshire, so the family must have moved at some stage. All the girls are annuitants, Collin a Bookkeeper.

He was married to Lucy Amelia Wyrill G-3 between 1871 and 1881.^{29,30} Lucy Amelia Wyrill G-3 was born on 14 Mar 1855 in Bradford.¹ She was named in Moses Bottomley's will on 23 Oct 1866. She resided on 4 Apr 1881 in Oxcroft House, West Wrating, Cambridge.²⁷ She died on 27 Jan 1935 in Yukon St, Vancouver, BC, Canada.¹ Charles Tetley G-3 and Lucy Amelia Wyrill G-3 had no known children.

General Notes: FIRST GENERATION

1. Martha Bottomley G-41,2 was born on 6 Aug 1822 in Wade House Shelf?³ She was baptised on 15 Nov 1822 in Bradford parish church. She resided on 7 Jun 1841 in Wade House, Shelf, with parents.⁴ She died between 23 Oct 1866 and 4 Apr 1881. The earlier date is based upon her named presence in Moses Bottomley's Will. The later date is based upon (a) her niece Sarah Elizabeth now being resident in Wade House, i.e. the Wyrill family have gone (if they were ever there) and (b) lack of any 1881 census entry for her.

She was married to William Wyrill g-4 on 13 Sep 1842. William Wyrill g-4 was born about 1822.⁵ He resided on 12 Apr 1846 in Huddersfield.⁶ He was a Broker on 12 Apr 1846.⁶ He died before 23 Oct 1866.⁷ He was an Iron Monger & Broker. Solely on the evidence of Sarah Frances Wyrill's place of birth, it is possible that he at least had his business in Huddersfield. Full details of the other children might be found there, and maybe evidence of others.

His parents were Thomas Wyrill, a gentleman, and Mary Wardman: they married in 1816. Mary had had two previous husbands: first was Joseph Thorp whom she married in 1798; then Charles Dewhirst, a weaver, whom she married 25-1-1803 in Bradford parish church.

In Janet's tree, there are a large number of relatives spreading out from Charles Dewhirst, back, forward and sideways in time: 'fortunately', none of this has any bearing on the Bottomley family tree whatsoever. Children of Martha Bottomley G-4 and William Wyrill g-4 were:

2 i. Sarah Frances Wyrill G-38 was born on 3 Jun 1845 in Huddersfield.⁹ She was baptised on 12 Apr 1846 in Wade House Chapel Shelf.⁶ She died before 23 Oct 1866. Her date of death is based on her absence from Moses Bottomley's will (whereas all the others are present - which is where their names have probably been picked up from, thus begging the question as to whether there are more children).

3 ii. Thomas Moses Wyrill G-3 died after 23 Oct 1866. This is based on named presence in Moses Bottomley's Will. He is apparently absent from the 1881 census. He was born u/k.

4 iii. Mary Ann Wyrill G-3 died after 23 Oct 1866. Based on named presence in Moses Bottomley's will. She was born u/k.

+5 iv. Moses Bottomley Wyrill G-3.

+6 v. Lucy Amelia Wyrill G-3.

+7 vi. A N Wyrill G-3.

SECOND GENERATION

Descendants of John Bottomley

5. Moses Bottomley Wyrill G-3 was born about 1851 in Bradford.¹⁰ He was a Mill Manager on 18 Oct 1874.¹¹ He resided between 18 Oct 1874 and 1876 in Hipperholm.^{12,13,14} He resided on 4 Apr 1881 in Belle Vue, Shelf.¹⁵ The family had a General Domestic Servant. He was a Manager in Worsted Mill on 4 Apr 1881.¹⁵ He died u/k. He was named in Moses Bottomley's will.

He was married to Ann(ie) Elizabeth g-3 in 1873.¹⁶ Ann(ie) Elizabeth g-3 was born in 1847 in Congleton, Cheshire.¹⁷ She resided on 4 Apr 1881 in Belle Vue, Shelf, with husband.¹⁵ Children of Moses Bottomley Wyrill G-3 and Ann(ie) Elizabeth g-3 were:

8 i. Martha Maria Wyrill G-2 was born on 23 Sep 1874 in Hipperholme.¹⁸ She was baptised on 18 Oct 1874 in St Michael & All Angels Shelf.¹¹ She died before 14 Jul 1876 in Hipperholme.¹⁹ She was 1 year 10 months old. Her full name was given as Martha Marie Louisa Wyrill. She was buried on 14 Jul 1876 in St Michael & All Angels.¹⁹

9 ii. William Wyrill G-2 was born about 1876 in Hipperholme.¹⁵ He resided on 4 Apr 1881 in Belle Vue, Shelf, with parents.¹⁵

10 iii. Fanny Wyrill G-2 was born between 27 Mar 1878 and 26 Apr 1878 in Hipperholme.²⁰ She died before 26 Apr 1879 in Hipperholme.¹⁹ She was 19 months old. She was buried on 26 Apr 1879 in St Michael & All Angels.¹⁹

11 iv. George L Wyrill G-2 was born in Dec 1880 or Jan 1881 in Shelf.¹⁵ He resided on 4 Apr 1881 in Belle Vue, Shelf, with parents.¹⁵ He was 4m old on 4-4-1881.

6. Lucy Amelia Wyrill G-3 was born on 14 Mar 1855 in Bradford.²¹ She was named in Moses Bottomley's will on 23 Oct 1866. She resided on 4 Apr 1881 in Oxcroft House, West Wrating, Cambridge.²² She died on 27 Jan 1935 in Yukon St, Vancouver, BC, Canada.²¹

She was married to Charles Tetley G-3 between 1871 and 1881.^{23,24} Charles Tetley G-3 was born on 19 May 1846 in Horton, Bradford.^{25,26,27} He resided on 4 Apr 1881 in Oxcroft House, West Wrating, Cambridge.²⁸ He was a Steam Plough Proprietor employing 3 men 2 boys (Ag Mach Att Boysendt) on 4 Apr 1881.²² He died before 27 Jan 1935.²⁹ He immigrated to Canada (from the IoM).²¹ He was named in Moses Bottomley's will. Lucy Amelia Wyrill G-3 and Charles Tetley G-3 had no known children.

7. A N Wyrill G-330 was born about 1857. She died in Canada?.

A N Wyrill G-3 and Mclean g-2 had no known children.

SOURCES

1. All details of Martha and her husband and family are Yvonne Fearnley sourced, unless noted otherwise. Only Sarah and Moses are in Janet Ogden's family tree: the others are in Yvonne Fearnley's tree, except Sarah: the fact that Moses appears in both trees tends to bind all the names together.

20. Deduced from other information. The Burial Register is the only source of information: her inferred birth date fits with the rest of the family, and she is from the same place as her sister also buried here, in 1876, so there is good circumstantial evidence that Moses and Ann were her parents.

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF BIOGRAPHY.

BOTTOMLEY, Charles S., Textile Manufacturer. The world of industry is built upon the needs of mankind. Each separate manufacturing establishment goes to make the foundations secure and enduring. And upon the integrity of some man or some group of men does the existence of each individual industry depend. In the busy little city of Rockville, Charles S. Bottomley holds an important position among the men who provide a means of livelihood for the constantly growing population of the city. The name Bottomley is one of those names derived from location; com-pounded of the words "bottom" and "lea" meaning literally, bottom, or lower meadow, thus designating definite location. For many generations the Bottomley family of Shelf, near Bradford, England, has been interested in the manufacture of textile goods. The father of the Rockville manufacturer, William Bottomley, was a manufacturer of woollen goods at Shelf, and later was connected with Briggs Priestly & Company, at Bradford, England. William and Elisabeth (Lister) Bottomley were the parents of six children. Both are now deceased. Herbert, the eldest son, came to America, and was for a time a member of the firm of A. Priestly & Company, at Camden, New Jersey. Another son, Frederick W. Bottomley, is in the manufacturing business in Bradford, England. Charles S. Bottomley was born at Shelf, July 16, 1866. After attending the schools near his home, he continued his education at Thorp-Arch Grange, a Cambridge preparatory school. He was then associated with his father in the firm of Briggs Priestly & Company, the worsted manufacturers of Bradford, England, noted the world over for the excellence of their goods, which are sought by discriminating consumers on account of their uniformity of weave and stability of dye. Mr. Bottomley, as a young man, went through all the departments of the factory and made himself thoroughly familiar with every practical detail of worsted manufacturing, including textile designing. In 1886 he came to America, and became associated with his brother in the firm of A. Priestly & Company, at Camden, New Jersey. He remained there until May, 1897, when he accepted the position of designer for the American Mills Company, of Rockville, Connecticut, where he remained until January, 1900, then , went to the Hockanum Mill of Rockville, in the same capacity. In August of that year he went to the New England Mills, giving his ability wider scope in the office of superintendent. From there, in 1907, he was transferred to the Hockanum Mill, as superintendent. When the Hockanum Mills Company was organized, he was appointed as the assistant general superintendent, also a director of that organization, both of which positions he now holds. In his public life Mr. Bottomley throws his influence into such activities as feel the need of business sagacity, since, while they benefit those with whom they deal, their very existence depends upon the confidence of their patrons. He is director of the Rockville Building and Loan Aqueduct Company and a comparator of the Savings Banks of Rockville Politically Mr Bottomley is a staunch Republican, although he rarely takes the foreground in political affairs. In social as well as in business life. he is one of the leading men of Rockville. He is a member Fayette Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons; .Adoniram Chapter, Royal and Select Masters. Mr. Bottomley married. January 20, 1897, Lucy Mary, daughter of Jonathan and Eliza M. (Thomas) Pickering, of Camden, New Jersey. Mrs. Bottomley was born in Manchester, England. There was one child of this marriage, Margaret. The family attend and aid in the support of the Union Congregational Church, of Rockville

She resided on 4 Apr 1881 in 2 Plevna St, Rothwell, Yorkshire, with mother.21 Her widowed mother Mrs Jane Mitchell is head of household, age 59, born Ossett.
